Committee Reports:

- Fundraising Committee– Marie & Jim Smith reported the fundraisers will take place at Sonora Cantina in July and Maggio's in September.
- Training/Membership – Johnny Wells announced the opportunities for recruiting at the Gem, Mineral & Art Show, May 24-26, at the Masonic Lodge and the Farmers Market on Fridays at Meadow Park from 3-8 p.m. Staffing is needed for these and for the Garden Club's Enchanted Garden Boutique on June 28th, 6:30 a.m.- 5:00 p.m. at Veterans Park.

New Business:

- Attendance sheets & time sheets. The team members are reminded to sign in at meetings and to keep track of their volunteer hours on the BBV CERT time sheet.
- CPR & Advanced First Aid Certification. We still hope to arrange training for BBV CERT.

Old Business:

- CERT ID's and background checks for new recruits still being set up with OES.

Training: Michael Farris, Support Program Coordinator for Rim Family Services, spoke on the dangers of fentanyl and taught how to administer Narcan to poisoning victims. He distributed Narcan to the members for Emergency treatment of opioid overdose.
